SUBJECT No. 48.

Separation of Judicial and Executive Functions.

Mr. A. Narana Iyengar, Hassan Taluk.

Mr. A. Narana Iyengar.—The scheme for the separation of Judicial and Executive functions may be introduced into the districts where it has not been brought into force. Some reduction may be made in the number of hands in the Revenue Department, who may be posted to the Judicial Department and our request granted as early as possible.

Dewan.—It is the intention of Government to give effect to the scheme as early as possible, as funds permit.

SUBJECT No. 49.

Establishment of a Privy Council for Mysore.

Mr. C. V. Venkatasanjeevaiya, Closepet Municipality.

Mr. C. V. Venkatasanjeevaiya.—It is highly desirable to establish a Privy Council for Mysore to entertain appeals against the orders of the Mysore Chief Court.

Mr. P. Kannisettappa.—People find enough difficulty in going from one court to the other in appeal. The cost is enormous to go through the existing courts and it is very undesirable to create a Privy Council for Mysore.

Mr. Sivalingappa.—People get ruined before they reach the Chief Court.

Dewan.—Cannot be considered.

SUBJECT No. 50.

Establishment of a Second Class Magistrate's Court at each of the taluk headquarters.

Messrs. A. Srikantappa, Dodballapur Municipality; and Rajanarasiah Setty, Tyamagondlu Municipality.

Mr. A. Srikantappa.—Lot of difficulties are experienced by the people for want of a Second Class Magistrate's Court in taluk headquarters. At present, witnesses hesitate very much to come forward to give evidence before courts on account of the distance. If the Government consider that the establishment of these courts is very expensive, the Munsiffs in the taluk headquarters may be invested with the Second Class Powers in addition to their work.

Mr. Rajanarasaiya Setty supported the representation.

Dewan.—It is too costly. Not enough work.

Mr. B. Srinivasiengar.—The travelling allowances that are paid to the Police Officers who are to appear before the Second Class Magistrates' Courts are enormous. This enormous amount may be utilised for the establishment of Second Class Magistrates' Courts. Lot of difficulties are experienced especially in border taluks. It is very essential either to establish a Second Class Magistrate's Court or to strengthen the Police force. Only a few days ago, property worth four thousand rupees was stolen and no trace of it is yet found out. Before extradition is granted, the accused disappears with the property and it is not possible to trace him. Hence some arrangement must be made either to establish a Second Class Magistrate's Court or to strengthen the Police.

Mr. Karnick Krishnamurthi Rao.—If it is not possible to establish Second Class Magistrates' Courts, some of the most intelligent Bench Magistrates may be invested with
